About Spry Roughley Services Pty Ltd

Spry Roughley is a well established and growing firm of Chartered Accountants located in Parramatta - the geographical centre of Sydney, serving the greater Sydney area for over 30 years. The firm has 3 Directors and 24 staff.

We provide big company services with small company attention – our clients and staff get the best of both worlds.

Services include audit & assurance, management & financial accounting, taxation & business advice and financial planning. The breadth and depth of knowledge and experience in our staff allows Spry Roughley to provide a full range of insightful and practical services to our clients.

Being a smaller but reasonably sized firm we are able to provide significant flexibility in our arrangements with our clients. We ensure that there is substantial partner involvement and access in all our client dealings. We aim to build long term relationships which allow us to understand our client's business and to efficiently provide relevant support.

We are specialists in providing guidance and solutions to significant small and medium sized businesses and professional practices. Our clients include large corporate groups, developing businesses, not for profit societies, significant investors and subsidiaries of international companies.
