About FMB Chartered Accountants

These are taxing times, in every sense of the phrase. Whether it is returns or paying ones tax, or just the everyday pressures of doing business in a strained climate, accounting services and taxation advice of the very highest quality have become key.

Step forward FMB, a leading three-partner Chartered accountant practice based in Dublin's City Center, over 20 highly trained staff are at hand, all committed to making your business affairs less taxing.

Since arriving on the scene in 1988, our core business has remained the preparation and audit of financial statements and taxation compliance that accompanies it. Corporate and personal tax planning have become hugely important in recent years, with an emphasis increasingly falling upon fully qualified professionals.

With a broad client base across a great variety of sectors, we work particularly closely with professionals and legal practices, distribution, hotel, travel industries and credit unions.

Our list of priorities over the next few years will be long: management services, outsourcing, assignments with international companies investing in Ireland, audit of funds and insolvency advice will all be growth areas. Tax planning and estate planning will only increase in importance.

Whatever way you look at it, these indeed are taxing times. As the motto goes: at FMB we are dedicated to making business less taxing.
