About Dansk Revision Næstved

Revision Vadestedet is a certified firm of consultants and accountants specialised in smaller and medium-sized businesses and other associations requiring qualified accountancy and assistance with bookkeeping, accounting, auditing, payroll, fiscal matters and Financial forecasting.

Accountants from Revision Vadestedet have provided quality service to the Danish business sector for more than 80 years.

Our 14 dedicated employees, who - between them - represent more than 250 years' experience within the accounting profession, are ready to provide our services to you and your clients.

We take our share of the responsibility for ensuring the education of new members within the accounting profession. This way, we make sure our employees cover a wide field within experience as well as hourly fee. Thus, we are able to provide Manpower for an assignment from a team of employees that will ensure a qualified solution of any given task at competitive fees.
