◆ Introduction ◆

Maas Accountants: Auditors, Accountants, Consultants & Tax Advisers

The Netherlands holds many practical advantages as a base for your European subsidiary.

Attractive tax rulings for foreign investors

The Netherlands as acknowledged world trade center for Europe

Well educated work force

English as the business language

Geographical position (main port for the European continent)

For all its business appeal, however, the Netherlands also represents a challenge for corporate controllers. Many legal and business requirements differ greatly from the U.S., for example. And despite the European Union, each European jurisdiction has its own regulations.

As a good investment

Maas Accountants specialize in corporate finance and tax preparation for foreign companies doing business in Europe. For over 15 years we have guided small to medium sized enterprises through complex and unfamiliar Dutch processes with:

Cost saving advice on Dutch investment incentives

Outsourced financial set up and management

Information needed to comply with government requirements
